

This fact sheet provides an overview of community resources and highlights programs offering assistance with food, energy bills, housing, childcare, job training, and recovery services for those affected by trafficking. Support for disaster recovery and access to social services such as substance use treatment and mental health care are also included. QR codes are provided for easy access to more information.

Files

- PDF Expanding Anti-Trafficking Services: Do You Know About the Benefits and Services in Your Community (151.80 KB)