

Administration for Native Americans'

Grantee Connector

A space for grantees to network, find successful project models, and access ready-made tools for their projects

Current Grantee
Directory

Promising
Projects
Database

Tools and Templates

Site Visit
Lottery

Community Event
Calendar

Contact ANA | Contact Your Regional Technical Assistance Provider

Directory of Current Grantees

Find Other Grantees and Get Their Contact Info

Grantee contact information is only displayed with grantee consent. If you want to be in the directory, let us know.

The image shows a map of North America with several location pins. A pop-up window is open over the Eastern United States, displaying the following information:

- Eastern Native Language Consortium
- Project Title: Teacher Training Project
- Program Area: Native Language Preservation
- Project Summary: Training teachers for an immersion nest for k-5 students
- Contact Information of Project Staff: XXXX
- Video Clip of Project Director

The map includes labels for Japan, North Pacific Ocean, Mexico, North Atlantic Ocean, Venezuela, Colombia, Peru, Brazil, and Bolivia. The Google logo and a 'Terms' link are also visible at the bottom of the map interface.

Download a Printable Directory

Contact Info Oudated?
Let us know.

A large, light gray placeholder for a profile picture of a project director. Below the placeholder is a button labeled "Get to Know a Project Director" with a speaker icon to its right.

The Chippewa Cree Tribe

Project: Updating Tribal Codes | 2011-2013

	Project Profile
	Purpose Strategy and Objectives Project Impact View the Congressional Report
Photo of Tribal Attorney General, XXX XXXXX, holding a copy of new Tribal codes

Connect with grantee

Tools and templates used

Best practices
+ lessons learned

Challenges faced

Sustainability: where are they now?

Contact ANA | Contact Your Regional Technical Assistance Provider