² The "earning year" is the fiscal year for which the data were based. Adoption Incentive funds are generally awarded in the fiscal year following the earning year.

³ For earning year 2010, the amount of funds earned by States exceeded the amount of funds that were available. Therefore, the award amounts represented for 2010 reflect a prorated amount of approximately 74.5 percent of the total amount earned by States. Historically, when this has happened in the past, States were paid the balance of their earnings in the subsequent fiscal year. If States are paid the remaining balance for 2010 awards, this chart will be updated in the future to reflect the full amount.
