

Child Welfare Waiver Demonstrations Helpful Resources

James Bell Associates (JBA) is the Children's Bureau's evaluation technical assistance contractor for child welfare jurisdictions (including state and tribal child welfare agencies and the District of Columbia) with title IV-E Waiver Demonstrations. In this role, JBA facilitates information sharing and identifies useful research, evaluation, and policy resources for jurisdictions implementing waiver demonstrations. The following list of resources may be helpful to title IV-E agencies throughout the implementation of their demonstrations. If you have any specific informational or resource needs, please contact Nicole Miller, Senior Research Associate, at mmiller@jbassoc.com.

Children's Bureau

The official Web site of the Children's Bureau contains links to information regarding a wide range of child welfare programs and topics, including information on the Child Welfare Waiver Demonstrations and federal policy and funding announcements.

Child Welfare Waiver Demonstrations

Information on the Child Welfare Waiver Demonstrations is available in this section of the Children's Bureau's Web site. It provides summaries and profiles of the title IV-E child welfare waiver demonstrations, which include brief descriptions of each jurisdiction's waiver demonstration, evaluation approach, and links to reports posted on the Web. Reports not posted on the Web may be available by request from the Children's Bureau.

Children's Bureau Express

This Web site makes available a monthly newsletter published by the Children's Bureau. Visit this Web site to read the newsletter or to subscribe.
