PART I: BACKGROUND INFORMATION

SUMMARY: Section 107(a) of the Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act (P.L. 111-320) (the Act) authorizes grants to States for the purpose of assisting States in developing, establishing and operating programs designed to improve: (1) the assessment and investigation of suspected child abuse and neglect cases, including cases of suspected child sexual abuse and exploitation, in a manner that limits additional trauma to the child and the child’s family; (2) the assessment and investigation of cases of suspected child abuse-related fatalities and suspected child neglect-related fatalities; (3) the investigation and prosecution of cases of child abuse and neglect, including child sexual abuse and exploitation; and (4) the assessment and investigation of cases involving children with disabilities or serious health-related problems who are suspected victims of child abuse or neglect.

The term "State" as used in Section 3 (7) of the Act includes each of the several States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa and the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands. In FY 2013, 50 States, including the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa and the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands were deemed eligible for grants from funds deposited in the Crime Victims Fund, for a total of $17,000,000.

Since the Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa and the Northern Mariana Islands may submit consolidated grant applications in accordance with 45 CFR Part 97, these jurisdictions need not submit an application under this Program Instruction (PI) if they choose to have their allotments included in a consolidated grant and to expend these funds under the authority of another program that is available for consolidation.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this PI is to set forth the eligibility requirements and the grant application procedures for FY 2014 Children's Justice Act (CJA) grants and to provide the tentative State allocation table.

INFORMATION:

Three-Year Assessment Requirement

Section 107(d) of the Act requires the State Task Force (see description of Task Force at section A.1 on page 9) to undertake a comprehensive review and evaluation of the investigative, administrative and judicial handling of cases of child abuse and neglect and to make training and policy recommendations in each of the three categories in Section 107(e)(1) (the three CJA categories). The State Task Force assessment (review, evaluation and recommendations) is required for an initial application and at three-year intervals thereafter.

The assessment must include a report clearly outlining the review, evaluation, and recommendations in all the areas required in Section 107(e)(1)(A), (B) and (C). See pages 12-13.

The report should detail the steps conducted by the State to complete the Three-Year Assessment. The review and evaluation should build on prior assessments and note system improvements related to prior work. The review should outline the policy and training recommendations proposed. The report may also include any other relevant comments and recommendations. States may identify numerous training and policy recommendations and choose to prioritize certain recommendations be supported by CJA programming.

States which established their eligibility and first received funding in FY 2011 and States which completed the three-year assessment requirement and received funding in FY 2011 must include in their FY 2014 application documentation that the State Task Force complied with the requirement for a State Task Force study at three-year intervals. Those States are:

Alaska California Virginia Wyoming Puerto Rico

No-cost extension requests will not be approved except in the event of a natural occurrence of destruction or distress. These circumstances are defined in 45 CFR § 95.22.

Those States requesting an extension due to a natural occurrence of destruction or distress are to provide a written request, explaining the amount of money that remains to be liquidated and the circumstances for such an extension, to: Associate Commissioner JooYeun Chang, Administration on Children, Youth and Families, ATTN: Children's Bureau, 1250 Maryland Avenue, S.W., 8th Floor Washington, D.C. 20024, no later than November 1, 2014.

NOTE: The Office of Grants Management is pleased to work with grantees needing guidance in the obligation and liquidation of funds according to the terms and conditions of their grant award.

AVAILABILITY AND ALLOCATION OF FUNDS:

Funding for the CJA program is available from the Crime Victims Fund. Legislation requires in any fiscal year that funds be made available to the Department of Health and Human Services for CJA grants to the States, except that 15 percent will be reserved by the Attorney General for CJA grants to Native American Tribes. With the enactment of the Child Abuse Prevention and Enforcement Act (CAPE) in March 2000, the amount transferred to ACF is capped at $17,000,000. The total funding available for the CJA grants is $17,000,000.

Funds will be allocated to States based on a formula similar to that used in distributing the CAPTA State grants, i.e., a base amount of $50,000 will be awarded to each State; an additional amount will be awarded bearing the same ratio to the total funds remaining as the number of children under the age of 18 in each State bears to the total number of children under 18 in all the States.

Excess Funds:

Any excess funds resulting from States not meeting the eligibility requirements will be awarded to eligible States on a pro rata share basis. When a State receives more than their tentative allocation, supplemental information to explain the State's use of these additional funds should be submitted in the form of a letter to Associate Commissioner JooYeun Chang, Administration on Children, Youth and Families, 1250 Maryland Avenue, S.W., 8th Floor, Washington, D.C. 20024 no later than November 29, 2014.

The use of excess funds must conform to the guidelines contained in this PI.

PROJECTS AND ACTIVITIES:

In accordance with Section 107(a) of CAPTA, grants awarded are to be used to develop, establish and operate programs designed to improve:

1. the assessment and investigation of suspected child abuse and neglect cases, including cases of suspected child sexual abuse and exploitation, in a manner that limits additional trauma to the child and the child's family;
2. the assessment and investigation of cases of suspected child abuse-related fatalities and suspected child neglect-related fatalities;
3. the investigation and prosecution of cases of child abuse and neglect, including child sexual abuse and exploitation; and
4. the assessment and investigation of cases involving children with disabilities or serious health-related problems who are suspected victims of child abuse or neglect.

In particular grant funds should be used to implement State Task Force recommendations in the following three categories (the three categories from Section 107(e)(1)(A) (B) and (C)) of the Act:

- A. investigative, administrative, and judicial handling of cases of child abuse and neglect, including child sexual abuse and exploitation, as well as cases involving suspected child maltreatment related fatalities and cases involving a potential combination of jurisdictions, such as interstate, Federal-State, and State-Tribal, in a manner which reduces the additional trauma to the child victim and the victim's family and which also ensures procedural fairness to the accused;
- B. experimental, model, and demonstration programs for testing innovative approaches and techniques which may improve the prompt and successful resolution of civil and criminal court proceedings or enhance the effectiveness of judicial and administrative action in child abuse and neglect cases, particularly child sexual abuse and exploitation cases, including the enhancement of performance of court-appointed attorneys and guardians ad litem for children, and which also ensure procedural fairness to the accused; and

- C. reform of State laws, ordinances, regulations, protocols and procedures to provide comprehensive protection for children from abuse, including sexual abuse and exploitation, while ensuring fairness to all affected persons.

The CJA Task Force makes policy and training recommendations regarding methods to better handle these cases and sets the agenda for the work to be supported by CJA funds.

Supporting child abuse prevention programs or treatment services is not an appropriate use of CJA funds.

CJA funds are to be primarily focused on the front end, intake and investigative piece of child welfare. Projects selected by State Task Forces should be mindful that funds are spent to support efforts at this point in a child welfare case.

Examples of CJA supported activities include:

- Developing curricula and conducting training for personnel in law enforcement and child protective services, as well as health and mental health professionals, prosecutors and judges. This may include attention to issues of trafficking and exploitation within child welfare.
- Establishing or enhancing child advocacy centers and other multidisciplinary programs to serve child victims and their families in order to minimize trauma.
- Establishing and supporting local and/or State child fatality review teams, including multidisciplinary training, team development, and annual reporting.
- Supporting the enactment of laws to improve system response, including allowing the admission of indirect testimony of children into evidence, making the courtroom setting less intimidating to children, increasing the penalties for sexual offenses against children, requiring mandatory sentencing, shortening the trial process and permitting victims to make statements prior to sentencing.

- The on-going activities of a State Task Force in monitoring implementation of its recommendations and continuing interagency collaboration in carrying out the intent of the Act may be supported with these funds.

The current Administration has increased its attention on the issue of Human Trafficking. The Children's Bureau, along with the Administration on Children, Youth and Families (ACYF), continues to focus efforts at the intersection of trafficking and child welfare. Guidance from ACYF for States was recently released to support regional and local efforts (and is available at: <http://www.acf.hhs.gov/programs/cb/resource/human-trafficking-guidance.>)

The Children's Justice Act specifically mentions the issue of exploitation in Section 107 of CAPTA. CJA Task Forces have directed CJA funds to projects to address exploitation and trafficking. Projects responding to trafficking must be focused on systems improvement in response to cases of child maltreatment. Examples of appropriate use of CJA funds in this area include: trainings on recognizing trafficked or exploited children for first responders, training/collaborative efforts between child protective services and law enforcement, and/or development of procedures or a resource (tool kit) for professionals to address trafficking or exploitation. Other areas might focus on policies and procedures to promote successful prosecution of the traffickers/exploiters and ways to reduce child victim trauma.

Funds should be used for programs to reform State systems and improve the processes by which States respond to cases of child abuse and neglect, including child sexual abuse and exploitation and cases of suspected child abuse or neglect related fatalities. This will enable States to deal more effectively with both the child victim and the offender and to limit additional trauma to the child victim.
