

Tribal Home Visiting Grantee Profile

Grantee Information

Grantee Organization	Cook Inlet Tribal Council, Inc.
Implementing Agency	Cook Inlet Tribal Council, Inc.
Program Title	Ch'anik'en (translated as "Little One" or "Child")
Organization Type	Native American Tribally Designated Organization
Grant Period	September 30, 2016 - September 29, 2021
Grantee Group	Development and Implementation
Website	https://citci.org/

Grant Goals

Program Vision	To connect families-parents and children-to their full potential through healthy relationships that support positive growth, development, learning and cultural identity.
Program Goals	(1) Increase social and cultural connections that support parental resiliency. (2) Increase positive parenting that supports children's social emotional development and early learning. (3) Improve family self-sufficiency to promote family stability and wellbeing. (4) Continuously improve CITC organizational capacity and Family Mentor skills to deliver effective, family-centered services.

Implementation Context

State	Alaska
Location of Community	Urban Non-Reservation
Population Served	Alaska Native/American Indian people parenting children in Anchorage.
Ages of Children Served	Birth to kindergarten entry
Model	Parents as Teachers
Other Program Components	NA

Federal Project Officer

Farha Marfani
 (510) 504-1885
 farha.marfani@acf.hhs.gov

Key Program Staff

Deborah Northburg
 (907) 793-3401
 Dnorthburg@citci.org

PATH TA Staff

Petra Smith
 (202) 638-1144
 Psmith@zerotothree.org

TEI TA Staff

Erica Blue-Roberts
 (410) 236-7016
 Roberts@jbassoc.com