EXECUTIVE Summary

The Office of Child Support Enforcement (OCSE) is part of the Administration for Children and Families (ACF) within the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). HHS is the principal agency for protecting the health of all Americans and providing essential human services, especially for those who are least able to help themselves. ACF's mission is to foster health and well-being by providing federal leadership, partnership, and resources for the compassionate and effective delivery of human services. The ultimate ACF vision is that children, youth, families, individuals, and communities are resilient, safe, healthy, and economically secure.

OCSE's core mission is to:

- Establish paternity
- Obtain child support in order to encourage responsible parenting, family self-sufficiency and child well-being
- Recognize the essential role of both parents in supporting their children

The national child support program helps children receive support by:

- Locating parents
- Establishing paternity
- Establishing and modifying support obligations
- Monitoring and enforcing support obligations

The child support program is a federal/state/tribal/local partnership that operates under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act. The program functions in 54 states and territories, and 60 tribes.

The OCSE Annual Report to Congress highlights financial and statistical child support achievements based on data reported by state and tribal child support agencies. The content of the annual report is mandated by Section 452(a) under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act to give congressional members information that relates to the overall operations and success of the national child support program.

In fiscal year (FY) 2018, OCSE worked collaboratively and collectively with state and tribal programs and a variety of public and private partners. OCSE's work focused on engaging both parents in the lives of their children, increasing the economic stability of both parents, and strengthening family relationships.

The child support program made solid progress in its mission to increase family self-sufficiency and meet the needs of children and their families. These accomplishments are discussed further in the Highlights section of the report and supported by the data in the tables found in the Appendix.

HIGHLIGHTS of the Year

ACHIEVEMENTS

Total Child Support Collections for FY 2018

$32.3 billion

Non-IV-D IV-D $3.7 billion $28.6 billion

OCSE promoted effective approaches and excellent customer service to achieve the goal of ensuring children receive consistent financial support from their parents living apart from them. OCSE, states, and tribes identified proven strategies, including setting accurate orders to improve payment compliance rates and intervening early when payments stop. OCSE emphasized to states and territories the need for technology modernization and employer outreach to increase income withholding and new hire reporting compliance. OCSE also emphasized the importance of partnering with private and public programs that nurture healthy relationships between both parents and their children. These strategies contributed to improvements in program performance, reliable payments for children, and provided help to parents struggling to support their families.

PROGRAM PERFORMANCE

The child support program measures its successes in helping families become self-sufficient through a variety of outcome-based measures. This section describes the statistical performance of the national, state, and tribal programs.

Performance-Based Incentives and Penalties

The child support program has a strong outcome-based performance management system established by the Child Support Performance and Incentive Act of 1998 (CSPIA). Under CSPIA, states are measured in five program areas:

- Paternity establishment
- Support order establishment
- Current support collections
- Cases paying towards arrears
- Cost effectiveness

This performance-based incentive and penalty program is used to reward states for good or improved performance and to impose penalties when: (1) state performance falls below a specified level and has not improved; (2) state data used to compute incentive measures are found to be incomplete or unreliable; or (3) states are found to be non-compliant with certain federal child support requirements. Performance data maintained by states are regularly audited for completeness and reliability.

From FY 2017 to FY 2018, the IV-D caseload paternity establishment percentage (PEP) remained at 102¹ percent, while the statewide paternity establishment percentage decreased from 94 percent to 93 percent. Over this same period, the percentage of cases with support orders established increased from 87 percent to 88 percent, the current support collection rate increased from 65 percent to 66 percent, and the percentage of cases paying towards arrears remained at 64 percent. Cost effectiveness decreased slightly from $5.15 to $5.14 collected for every dollar spent on the program in FY 2018. For FY 2017, two states/territories received a penalty letter for having two consecutive performance failures.

DATA RELIABILITY AUDITS

Child support performance data are audited to ensure that they are reliable. Congress mandates OCSE to conduct annual data reliability audits and reviews to evaluate completeness, accuracy, security, and reliability of the data reported and produced by state reporting systems. These data reliability audits, performed by the OCSE Office of Audit, help ensure that incentives are earned and paid on the basis of only verifiable data and that the incentive payment system is fair and equitable. No state/territory failed the audit for FY 2018 for any measure. Two states/territories that failed the audit for one or more measures for FY 2017 received congratulatory letters for reporting complete and reliable data for those measures for FY 2018.

COST AUDITS

OCSE is required by Section 452(a)(4)(C) of the Social Security Act to evaluate the adequacy of the financial management of each state's child support program. Specifically, OCSE is mandated to perform reviews of expenditures claimed by states for federal reimbursement. The primary objectives of a cost audit are to determine whether the claimed child support costs are allowable, allocable, and reasonable, and to ensure that states bear their fair share of child support costs. Financial audits are performed after the data reliability audits are completed, to the extent that resources permit. There were no cost audits performed in FY 2018.

FEDERAL SYSTEMS

OCSE has an expansive portfolio of Information Technology (IT) services and programs, referred to as Federal Systems, which help states and tribes effectively and efficiently achieve the core mission of the program, which is to provide child support to millions of our nation's children. The Federal Systems portfolio is composed of multiple systems, including three that are critical to the business mission of the child support program:

- National Directory of New Hires (NDNH), a database of employees, their quarterly wages, and unemployment benefit information
- Federal Case Registry (FCR), a national database of child support participants, cases, and orders; and
- Debtor File, a database of noncustodial parents who owe past-due support that helps states and tribes collect through the Administrative and Federal Tax Refund Offset and Passport Denial programs, and the Multistate Financial Institution Data Match (MSFIDM) and Insurance Match programs.

OCSE expanded this portfolio to provide IT services and programs that assist child support agencies and other critical program partners – employers, financial institutions, insurers, and other federal agencies – in their efforts to support the child support program in cost-effective and efficient ways. OCSE and state child support systems exchange information daily through batch processing as well as a web-based interactive portal that allows for location services, case and participant inquiries, and document exchange. Currently, all 54 states and territories and two tribes – Muscogee Creek Nation and White Earth Nation – are using the Child Support Portal. The information collected and stored at the Federal Systems greatly assist state agencies with intergovernmental child support case management. Most of OCSE's batch systems were developed in mid to late 90s and OCSE continued the task of modernizing its systems. Enhancements include migration to relational databases, open systems architecture, and modern programming languages. These enhancements align with federal guidance on modernization as well as state systems modernization initiatives.

While Congress established the NDNH to help state child support agencies locate parents and enforce child support orders, Congress has authorized certain state and federal agencies to receive NDNH data for authorized purposes, primarily to reduce improper payments from needs-based public benefit programs. Below are outcomes from these data matches in FY 2018:

- The Social Security Administration (SSA) estimates savings of approximately $1 billion in prevention of annual benefits future overpayments and adjustments of incorrect payment amounts in the Supplemental Security Income program. SSA reports that the benefit-to-cost ratio for the entire program is estimated to be 5.3 to 1.
- Department of Treasury's Bureau of the Fiscal Service used a combination of NDNH and other data to recover approximately $58.5 million in federal nontax debt.
- The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development identified over $2.3 billion in underreported income using NDNH data, which could have resulted in $300 million in overpayments to rental recipients. With over $2.7 million in personnel and computer costs, this represents a return on investment of over 100:1.

STATE AND TRIBAL SYSTEMS

States continued to try to replace or enhance their legacy statewide-automated case management computer systems in FY 2018. In nearly all states, the systems are obsolete, and in some states, the systems are close to the end of their usable lives. However, state budget constraints continue to delay most enhancement and replacement efforts.

Despite these challenges, these states began to conduct planning and feasibility studies to examine a path forward to replace their systems:

- Arizona
- Kentucky
- Kansas
- Illinois

- Indiana
- New Mexico
- Tennessee

In addition to the states that are conducting the feasibility study, some states like Alaska, Ohio, Tennessee, and Utah are re-platforming to come out of an obsolete mainframe environment to a more distributed platform. The re-platforming projects are a low-cost alternative to developing a new system.

To reduce the federal costs of automating tribal programs, OCSE developed the Model Tribal System in FY 2013. The Model Tribal System is a comprehensive, highly configurable child support system available for implementation by tribal programs. By FY 2018, 13 tribes had completed full installation:

- Cherokee Nation of OK
- The Chippewa Cree Tribe of the Rocky Boys Reservation
- Confederated Tribes of Colville Reservation
- Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians of NC
- Eastern Shoshone of Wyoming
- Forest County Potawatomi Community of WI
- Lac Courte Oreilles
- Mille Lacs Band of Oiibwe

- Modoc Tribe of OK
- Prairie Band of Potawatomi Nation
- Sisseton Wahpeton Oyate
- The Suquamish Tribe
- White Earth Nation

The updated State Systems Certification Guide that provides requirements for all state child support systems was released in late 2017. Several states have started using the new guide for development of the new statewide system.

PROGRAM INNOVATION

Competitive Grants and Initiatives

OCSE awards competitive grants under two sections of the Social Security Act:

- Section 1115(a) authorizes OCSE to fund research and demonstration grants to promote Title IV-D purposes with a goal of improving the operation of the child support program.
- Section 452(j) authorizes OCSE to fund projects that support disseminating information and technical assistance to states, training of state and federal staff, staffing studies and related activities, as well as research, demonstration, and special projects of regional or national significance relating to the operation of IV-D programs. OCSE did not award any Section 452(j) awards in FY 2018.

In 2018, OCSE released a new Section 1115(a) grant announcement - Using Digital Marketing to Increase Participation in the Child Support Program. During the two-year grant period, awardees will design or improve and test digital marketing communications to reach parents that could benefit from child support services. Digital Marketing grants were awarded to 14 child support agencies, including two tribal child support programs for the first time under this funding authority.

OCSE awarded FY 2018 continuation funding to the recipients of the following Section 1115(a) grants:

- Behavioral Interventions for Child Support Services (BICS), a five-year project awarded in FY 2014
- Procedural Justice-Informed Alternatives to Contempt (PJAC), a five-year project awarded in FY 2016

Access and Visitation

OCSE administers grants to states for the Access and Visitation Program to support and facilitate noncustodial parents' access to and visitation with their children by means of activities including: mediation, counseling, parenting education, developing parenting time schedules, visitation enforcement (monitoring, supervision, and neutral drop-off and pick-up), and developing guidelines for alternative custody arrangements. The annual appropriation for this program is $10 million total, and each state and territory receives a portion of this funding based on the formula in the authorizing statute.

OCSE Program Partnerships

Program partnerships are critical to fulfilling OCSE's goal of improving child support outcomes for all children. Partnerships are a low-cost effective way to increase the consistency of child support payments in those cases where there are barriers by addressing the reasons parents are not paying, such as unemployment, incarceration, parental conflict, or lack of access to their children. Partnerships also help other stakeholders in accomplishing their mission and goals. Examples of OCSE's FY 2018 partnerships:

- Department of Veterans Affairs to identify veterans with child support issues, address child support debt, improve employment prospects, and restore family connections.
- HHS/ACF Office of Family Assistance (OFA) on their Healthy Marriage and Responsible Fatherhood grants to plan for building local child support collaborations and to improve services and outcomes for fathers participating in the OFA grants.
- Consumer Financial Protection Bureau on its Your Money, Your Goals, which is a set of financial empowerment materials designed to help families meet their financial goals through increased knowledge, skills, and resources.

POLICY

International Child Support Program

HHS is the U.S. Central Authority for international child support and the Secretary has designated OCSE to carry out the Central Authority duties. The United States implemented the Hague Convention on the International Recovery of Child Support and Other Forms of Family Maintenance. The Hague Convention provides for a comprehensive system of cooperation between the child support authorities of contracting states, establishes procedures for recognition of foreign child support decisions, and requires effective measures for prompt enforcement.

In FY 2018, in addition to providing technical assistance and policy guidance, OCSE published the Hague Child Support Judicial Guide, and delivered training on international child support to several judicial and legal groups. With the new Hague Convention and our existing bilateral arrangements, the U.S. partnered with over 50 countries and Canadian provinces/territories to ensure that child support obligations are enforced. OCSE also responded to over 880 customer service inquiries on international child support cases from families, states, and foreign countries.

Revision and Implementation of the Interstate Administrative Subpoena, Notice of Interstate Lien, and Required Data Elements for Paternity Establishment

As required by the Paperwork Reduction Act, OCSE requested public comment and revised the Interstate Administrative Subpoena form and instructions and Notice of Interstate Lien form and instructions. The required data elements for paternity establishment affidavits were renewed. These forms and data elements assist child support agencies in providing uniform, efficient services to families seeking child support.

Intergovernmental Case Processing and Intergovernmental Forms Training

OCSE provided training on Intergovernmental Case Processing, which included Interstate 101, Interstate 201, Interstate Scenarios, Interstate Payment Processing, Interstate Case Closure, and OCSE Interstate Tools and Resources. OCSE also provided training on the revised set of 13 OMB-approved intergovernmental forms. All of this training is available on the OCSE website.

State Plan

As a condition of receiving federal funding, state child support agencies must have an approved state plan that describes the nature and scope of their child support program and meets all federal requirements. In FY 2018, OCSE issued state plan training materials and policy guidance on compliance with the 2008 Medical Support Final Rule and the Bipartisan Budget Act of 2018.

TRIBAL PROGRAMS

Funding for tribal IV-D grants is authorized under Section 455(f) of the Social Security Act. In order to demonstrate the capacity to operate a tribal child support program, tribes or tribal organizations must include the following tribally determined performance targets in a tribal IV-D plan: paternity establishment, support order establishment, amount of current support to be collected, and amount of past-due support to be collected. Tribal child support programs may also submit any other performance measures they wish.

- Comprehensive tribal child support programs provide full child support services.
- Start-up tribal programs are in the developmental stages of operation and are working to demonstrate their capacity to operate as a comprehensive program; however, start-up funding and statistical data are not covered in this report.

- Most tribal child support programs are relatively new and have challenging caseloads due to a number of factors such as a smaller scale, higher unemployment, and higher poverty rates on reservations than in states.
- Sixty comprehensive tribes reported collections of over $55 million on nearly 60,000 cases.

60 Comprehensive Tribal Programs

2 start-up programs with applications in review to become comprehensive:

- Apache Tribe of Oklahoma, OK
- Shinnecock Indian Nation, NY

CUSTOMER COMMUNICATIONS

During FY 2018, OCSE managed and disseminated key communications for the national child support program to inform and engage OCSE customers, partners, stakeholders, and the public.

- OCSE supported plain language guidelines to ensure information from the federal office is easy to read, understand, and use.
- Parents, program partners, and child support professionals visit the OCSE website for policy documents and contact and program information. Child support populations including military service members, veterans, and incarcerated parents could find specific information targeted for those groups.
- OCSE managed communication campaigns to disseminate timely information through the appropriate social media channels.
- OCSE managed two blogs:
 - o Commissioner's Voice featured messages from our commissioner highlighting important OCSE initiatives.
 - o Analyze This provided in-depth analysis of child support data to inform child support professionals and other stakeholders about national child support trends.
- Customers also learned about OCSE, state, local, and tribal initiatives promoting the well-being of children and families in our monthly e-newsletter, Child Support Report. Our newsletter's reach is one of the largest in the agency, with distribution to more than 5,500 subscribers each month.
- Using OCSE's Customer Inquiry Management system, OCSE responded to thousands of customer inquiries from the public, parents, Congress, the White House, HHS Office of Inspector General, and other officials and advocates.

PROGRAM Performance

TRIBAL PERFORMANCE

The Office of Child Support Enforcement recognizes the unique relationship between the federal government and federally recognized Indian Tribes. The direct federal funding provisions in Section 455(f) of the Social Security Act provides Tribes with an opportunity to administer their own IV-D programs in a manner that meets the needs of children and their families.

- ¹ The Total Number of Records Posted to the NDNH includes records submitted by both states and federal agencies. Therefore, the national totals are higher than the totals reported in the state-by-state report because that report does not include any records posted by federal agencies.
- ² The Total Number of Unique Persons in the FCR is derived by unduplicating SSNs across all participant types. The figures for the individual participant types are unduplicated within that category but not between them—i.e., an individual may appear in more than one category, but is only counted once within that category and only once in the total. As a result, the counts for the individual participant types may not add up to the Total Number of Unique Persons in the FCR. In addition, an individual can be a child support case participant in more than one state but is only counted once in the nationwide total.
- ³ The Total Number of Unique Persons (NCPs and PFs) Matched is derived by unduplicating SSNs located across all data types (NH, QW, UI). The figure is unduplicated within each data type but not between them—i.e., an individual may appear in more than one category but is only counted once in that category and once in the total. As a result, the individual NH, QW, and UI counts may not add up to the Total Number of Unique Persons Matched.
- ⁴ The MSFIDM match is performed quarterly. If an obligor has an account open over two quarters, the match would be duplicated each quarter. To compensate for this, the average of the four quarters during the fiscal year was used. Since an obligor can have more than one account, there are always more accounts than obligors located.
- ⁵ States use the Child Support Enforcement Network (CSENet) to communicate case data and requests to other states automated systems in order to process interstate cases more effectively. A valid transaction involves the complete process of one state initiating and forwarding a request, and the appropriate state receiving this request. An Exchange agreement allows one state to forward a request to another state using CSENet. The total number of exchange agreements that an individual state has reflects the number of other states that it can send requests to. The national total is the sum of exchange agreements in all states.

In TANF or Title IV-E foster care cases: the amount of past-due support must be at least $150.

In Non-TANF or Medicaid-only cases: the amount of past-due support must be at least $500.

The criterion for certification of a debt for Administrative Offset is the amount of past-due support must be at least $25.

² Tax Offsets are based on intercepts of Federal Tax Refunds, while Administrative Offsets are based on intercepts of certain federal payments such as vendor and miscellaneous payments (that is, expense reimbursement payments and travel payments) and federal retirement payments. The tax and administrative figures add up to the Total figures and include both TANF and Non-TANF.

 $^{^{3}}$ The TANF and Non-TANF figures add up to the Total figures and include both Tax and Administrative Offsets.

⁴ A certified case may be representative of an individual debt or an accumulation of TANF or Non-TANF debts. The criteria for certification of a debt for Federal Income Tax Refund Offset are as follows:

² Some states code their Putative Fathers as NCPs when submitting them to the FCR. For those states Putative Fathers are included in the NCP figure instead of the PF figure, which is NA.

¹ The Unique NCPs and PFs Matched is derived by unduplicating SSNs located across all data types (NH, QW, and UI). The figure is unduplicated within each data type but not between them--i.e., an individual may appear in more than one category but is only counted once in that category and once in the Unique Persons Matched column. As a result, the individual NH, QW, and UI counts may not add up to the Unique Persons Matched figure.

² These totals are summations of the individual state totals. Since an individual may be involved in child support cases in more than one state, there may be duplicates between the states. Therefore, these totals are higher than the unduplicated totals that are reported at the national level.

It would include collections from various sources such as per capita payments and Tribal casinos.

Tribal Unemployment Rate (Optional Reporting)

This is an optional reporting line, and may be obtained from an actual study or report such as the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) Labor Force Report, or other Tribal calculations based on Tribal members, Tribal child support caseload, or other appropriate group.

Tribal Joblessness Rate (Optional Reporting)

The joblessness rate is an alternative measure of unemployment. No standard definitions were provided. Tribes may choose how to calculate this measure.

How an Incentive Payment is Determined

Because of the complexity of the incentives formula set forth in section 458 of the Social Security Act, we have included an example of how the system would work in a particular year for State A. Let's make the following assumptions regarding State A (See Table A):

- State A's paternity performance level is 93 percent, making its applicable percentage 100 percent (see Table C)
- State A's order establishment performance level is 74 percent, making its applicable percentage 88 percent (see Table C)
- State A's current support collections performance level is 59 percent, making its applicable percentage 69 percent (see Table D)
- State A's arrearage support collections performance level is 60 percent, making its applicable percentage 70 percent (see Table D)
- State A's cost-effectiveness ratio is $4.40, making its applicable percentage 80 percent (see Table E)
- State A's collections base is $50 million (determined by 2 times the collections for Current Assistance, Former Assistance, and Medicaid Never Assistance plus Never Assistance collections and fees retained by other states)
- The maximum incentive for State A is:
 - $50 million collections base for paternity ($50 mil. times 1.00), plus
 - $44 million collections base for orders ($50 mil. times 0.88), plus
 - $34.5 million collections base for current collections ($50 mil. times 0.69), plus
 - $26.25 million collections base for arrearage collections ($50 mil. times 0.75¹ times 0.70) plus
 - $30.0 million collections base for cost-effectiveness ($50 million times 0.75¹ times 0.80) equals
 - Resulting in a maximum incentive base amount of $184.75 million for State A.

¹ Because the measure has less weight.

Table A

Measure	State A's Performance Level	Applicable Percentage based on Performance	Weight	State A's Collection Base (assumed to be $50,000,000)
Paternity Establishment	93%	100%	1.00	$50,000,000
Order Establishment	74%	88%	1.00	$44,000,000
Current Collections	59%	69%	1.00	$34,500,000
Arrearage Collections	60%	70%	.75	$26,250,000
Cost-Effectiveness	$4.40	80%	.75	$30,000,000
State A's Maximum Incentive Base Amount				$184,750,000

We must now make some assumptions regarding the other States. Let's assume that there are only two other States in our country--and the maximum incentive base amount is $84 million for State B and $50 million for State C, making the total maximum incentive base amount $318.75 million for all three States (See Table B).

• We must now determine what is State A's share of the $318.75 million. It is 58 percent ($184.75 divided by $318.75).

Table B

State	Maximum Incentive Base Amounts	State's Share of $318,750,000	Incentive Payment Pool $461,000,000
^	¢104.7F0.000	0.50	¢267 100 216
A	$184,750,000	0.58	$267,199,216
В	$84,000,000	0.26	$121,487,059
С	$50,000,000	0.16	$72,313,725
Totals	$318,750,000	1.00	$461,000,000

- Let us assume it is FY 2003, so the incentive payment pool for the FY is $461 million (see Table F).
- Since State A's share is 0.58, this state has earned 58 percent of the $461 million incentive payment pool that Congress is allowing, or $267.2 million ($461 mil. x 0.58) incentive payment for this particular fiscal year.

Incentive Pool Payment, FYs 2001-2018

The incentive payment pool is:

- $429,000,000 for fiscal year 2001
- $450,000,000 for fiscal year 2002
- $461,000,000 for fiscal year 2003
- $454,000,000 for fiscal year 2004
- $446,000,000 for fiscal year 2005
- $458,000,000 for fiscal year 2006
- $471,000,000 for fiscal year 2007
- $483,000,000 for fiscal year 2008
- $504,000,000 for fiscal year 2009
- $504,000,000 for fiscal year 2010
- $513,000,000 for fiscal year 2011
- $526,000,000 for fiscal year 2012
- $538,000,000 for fiscal year 2013
- $547,000,000 for fiscal year 2014
- $556,000,000 for fiscal year 2015
- $558,000,000 for fiscal year 2016
- $563,000,000 for fiscal year 2017
- $575,000,000 for fiscal year 2018

The incentive payment pool after FY 2008 is the amount of the incentive payment pool for the preceding FY, multiplied by the percentage by which the Consumer Price Index (CPI) for that preceding FY exceeds the CPI for the second preceding FY.

The CPI for a FY is the average of the CPI for the 12 month period ending on Sept. 30 of the FY. The CPI means the last CPI for all-urban consumers published by the United States Department of Labor. The NOT seasonally adjusted CPI numbers are used.

The percentage increase between the preceding FY (FY 2008) and second preceding FY (FY 2007) is about 4.44%. So, $483 million (the FY 2008 incentive pool amount) plus 4.44% equals about $504 million (the FY 2009 incentive pool amount).
