Guam: Efforts to Combat Human Trafficking

U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Region IX

This state profile summarizes regionally specific data to help promote collaboration and inform and enhance the response to human trafficking in Guam. Information was reported to the National Human Trafficking Hotline from December 2012 to December 2016.

The image above is a heat map that reflects the cases reported to the National Human Trafficking Hotline in 2016. Areas in which greater numbers of cases were reported contain more red shading. There is significant red shading in central Guam. This map only reflects cases in which the location of the potential trafficking was known. Some cases may involve more than one location.

Types of Calls to the National Human Trafficking Hotline in 2016

The National Human Trafficking Hotline did not receive enough calls from Guam in 2016 to create a graph indicating the types of calls received.

The data contained in this document are based on aggregated information learned through signals—phone calls, emails, and online tip reports—received by the National Human Trafficking Hotline. The data do not represent actual numbers of cases identified or processed, nor do they represent the entire scope of human trafficking.
