Grant Goals

Program Vision	We envision self-sufficient families led by all walks of caregivers who support our young children so that we, the Shared Waters Program of Crow Creek and Lower Brule, are celebrating our proud heritage and creating a brighter future for our families.
Program Goals	(1) Increase caregiver knowledge and skills in early childhood development and positive parenting practices with a focus on serving teen parents. (2) Increase school readiness and healthy development of children by screening and providing services. (3) Increase access to supportive services including a focus on decreasing child abuse and neglect.

Implementation Context

State	South Dakota
Location of Community	Rural Reservation
Population Served	Pregnant women, expectant fathers, and parents serving as primary caregivers of American Indian children who are part of the Crow Creek and Lower Brule Sioux Tribal Community. The Crow Creek Reservation spans across Buffalo, Hughes and Hyde counties and the Lower Brule Reservation spans across Lyman and Stanley counties.
Ages of Children Served	Birth to kindergarten entry
Model	Parents as Teachers
Other Program Components	(1) Enhancement: Integration of cultural enhancements throughout the home visiting program such as incorporation of tribal language and utilization of traditional practices and spirituality. (2) Incorporation of Money Matters Young Families Workbook for Finances that addresses family financial literacy.
