

Domestic Violence Resource Network

FVPSA supports two national resource centers on domestic violence, along with special issue and culturally specific resource centers. These organizations ensure that victims of domestic violence, advocates, community-based programs, educators, legal assistance providers, justice personnel, health care providers, policy makers, and government leaders at the local, state, tribal, and federal levels have access to up-to-date information on best practices, policies, research, and victim resources.

Additional Projects

In 2013, FVPSA began a new grant program focused on building the capacity of culturally specific, community-based organizations to offer evidence-informed domestic violence and trauma services. The Domestic Violence Evidence Project is a comprehensive evidence review of services to victims and an online resource center at www.dvevidenceproject.org. A companion site, Promising Futures: Best Practices for Serving Children, Youth and Parents Experiencing Domestic Violence, is at www.PromisingFuturesWithoutViolence.org. FVPSA continues its grant to expand leadership opportunities in the domestic violence field for people from underrepresented groups.
