

Using Safe Dates will help you meet the following Georgia Department of Education Health curriculum standards:

Standard 22: Topic: Family Living: Self-Concept [Grades 9-12]

- Standard: Identifies factors that promote a positive self-image (e.g., accepting responsibility; respect for self, authority and others, and self-discipline, self-control and the right to be assertive).

Safe Dates lesson(s):

- 1- Defining Caring Relationships
- 7- Equal Power through Communication
- 8- How We Feel? How we Deal

Standard 23: Topic: Family Living: Persuasion [Grades 9-12]

- Standard: Identifies ways of resisting persuasive tactics regarding sexual involvement (e.g., saying "no," negotiation and using refusal and decision-making skills).

Safe Dates Lesson:

- 9- Sexual Assault

Standard 25: Topic: Family Living: Dating [Grades 9-12]

- Standard: Identifies social, emotional, intellectual, and economic aspects of dating

Safe Dates Lesson(s):

- 1: Defining Caring Relationships
- 2: Defining Dating Abuse
- 3: Why Do People Abuse?
- 4: How to Help a Friend
- 5: Helping Friends
- 6: Images of Relationships
- 9: Sexual Assault

Standard 34: Topic: Mental Health: Conflict Resolution [Grades 9-12]

- Standard: Demonstrates effective communication skills and resistance skills (e.g., nature of conflict, feelings, active listening, effective communication skills, and empathy).

Safe Dates Lesson(s):

- 7: Equal Power through Communication
- 8: How We Feel? How We Deal?

Standard 44: Topic: Safety: Violence Prevention [Grades 9-12]

- Standard: Identifies threats to personal safety (e.g., incest, rape, date rape)

Safe Dates Lesson(s):

- 2: Defining Dating Abuse
- 3: Why Do People Abuse?
- 9: Sexual Assault

Standard 45: Topic: Safety: Resources [Grades 9-12]

- Standard: Identifies local support system concerning personal safety (e.g., family, teacher, religious advisor, friend, and counselor).

Safe Dates Lesson:

- 4: How to Help a Friend