<sup>1</sup> The Adoption Incentives program began in FY 1998 as part of the Adoption and Safe Families Act of 1997 (ASFA), and has since been reauthorized twice – as part of the Adoption Promotion Act of 2003, and most recently, as part of the Fostering Connections and Increasing Adoptions Act of 2008. With each authorization of the program, there have been some changes in award calculation and payment amounts. For more information about the program, see Program Instruction 99-04, Program Instruction 04-03, Information Memorandum 04-04, Information Memorandum 05-01, and Information Memorandum 09-03.

<sup>2</sup> The "earning year" is the fiscal year for which the data were based. Adoption Incentive funds are generally awarded in the fiscal year following the earning year.

<sup>3</sup> For earning year 2011, the amount of funds earned by States exceeded the amount of funds that were available. Therefore, the award amounts represented for 2011 reflect a prorated amount of approximately 87.1 percent of the total amount earned by States. Historically, when this has happened in the past, States were paid the balance of their earnings in the subsequent fiscal year. If States are paid the remaining balance for 2011 awards, this chart will be updated in the future to reflect the full amount.
