QUALITY CHILD CARE MATTERS

During the earliest years of a child's life:

700-1,000 new neural connections form every second. These connections are influenced by genes and experiences.

By 24 months, low income children are 6 months behind in skills critical to language development.

By age 3, low income children have heard 30 million fewer words than their more affluent peers.

Quality Child Care Depends on a Quality Workforce

- Wages Matter. To attract and retain a quality workforce, early childhood educators need to earn decent wages.
- In every state, child care worker wages qualify a family of three for public aid.
- The median annual wage for a child care professional in Georgia is $19,050.

It's time to invest in high quality child care.
