>>[Text: Purpose] [lively background music]

0:16

>>NARRATOR: The sun is rising and all across America, people are waking up, and finding new purpose. The Health Profession Opportunity Grants program is providing people in need with education for jobs in healthcare. [Visuals: photos of HPOG participants preparing for their days, getting kids ready for school, eating breakfast, etc.]

0:21

0:27

0:42

0:44

>>[Text: Drive]

0:44

>>NARRATOR: They're people like you, who are driven for a better future. Who want a better life for their families. Who are willing to go the extra mile.

0:48

driving, taking buses, etc.]

1:21

>>[Text: Determination]

1:21

>>NARRATOR: They're determined to get an education. To get the training and skills they need for health care occupations in high demand. Nurses, medical assistants, home health aides. More than 50 unique occupations. The Health Profession Opportunity Grants program provides them with the scholarships and assistance they need to get into the classroom. But it's their hard work which gets them through. [Visuals: photos of HPOG participants in class]

1:25

1:33

1:40

1:45

1:51

>>[Text: Healing]

1:52

>>NARRATOR: At work, students use what they've learned to help others. They offer healing.

1:58

They serve their communities. And they move up and out of the cycle of poverty and low-wages, into meaningful health care careers. [Visuals: photos of HPOG participants learning

2:05

2:15

health care skills and health care support skills]

2:26

>>[Text: Perseverance]

2:28

>>NARRATOR: It's not easy. There are many barriers to overcome. Problems to solve. The 2:37

Health Profession Opportunity Grants provide them with tools they need. Child care, tutoring, mentoring, online learning, peer support groups. Together, through perseverance, there is success.
2:44

>>[Text: Hope]

3:04

>>NARRATOR: At the end of the day these students are finding their way out of poverty.
Through

3:12

education, work, and determination. They are making a better future for themselves. Their families. And their communities. There is hope for the future. And we will find it together.
3:19
