

Healthy Marriage/Relationship Education and Responsible Fatherhood Curricula Reviews, 2013-2014

Project Overview

This contract, awarded to Impaq International, is to develop a searchable tool that allows grant applicants and others interested in information about commonly used healthy marriage and relationship education and responsible fatherhood curriculum to search for topical content, target populations, implementation parameters, and linkages with relevant research. The tool is intended to help organizations to align curriculum selection with programmatic goals, organizational infrastructure and capacity, and target populations.

The point of contact is Nancye Campbell.
