If you think someone is a victim of human trafficking, call the National Human Trafficking Resource Center, 1.888.373.7888, to obtain information and to access supportive services for the victim.

www.acf.hhs.gov/trafficking

Restoring their lives. Victims of human trafficking are often kept in unhealthy and dangerous environments. The National Human Trafficking Resource Center can help you determine if you have encountered a victim. The following signs may help you identify a possible victim:

- Bruises, depression, fear, over/controlled
- Leave job
- Debt owed to employer
- Inability to travel documents
- Traded for personal schedule, money, L.D.
- Lack of control over personal items, boss: not trafficking victim

The person you have encountered may be a victim of human trafficking.