What's required?

- Good business sense. It’s a small act of kindness, combined with

As a landlord, you receive:

- A lease when you understand:
  - a tenant who has been placed in a unit
  - a tenant with a strong desire to support and maintain your unit

Renting to Refugees

A Win/Win Situation

- A Win/Win for Refugees — Use of local resettlement
  - Have documentation of legal residency
  - Have a resettlement agency case

Does the landlord:

- Understand how to be a “good neighbor”:
  - Understand how to clean your units
  - Understand how to use appliances and
  - Understand their responsibilities for utility
  - Understand how and where to pay rent

- Know who to call in an emergency

A Win for Refugees

- A Win for Refugees:
  - Know how to dump your garbage
  - Know how to clean your units

A Win for Local Community

- A Win for Local Community:
  - Know how to use appliances and
  - Understand their responsibilities for utility

Offering Hope

Offering A Home

Offering Homes