If you think someone is a victim of human trafficking, call the National Human Trafficking Resource Center, 1.888.3737.888, to obtain information and to access supportive services for the victim.

The following clues may help you identify a possible trafficking victim:

- > Accompanied by a controlling person or boss; not speaking on own behalf
- > Lack of control over personal schedule, money, I.D., travel documents
- > Transported to or from work; lives and works in the same place
- > Debt owed to employer/crew leader; inability to leave job
- > Bruises, depression, fear, overly submissive

These questions may help you identify a trafficking victim:

- > What type of work do you do?
- > Are you being paid?
- > Can you leave your job if you want to?
- > Can you come and go as you please?
- > Have you or your family been threatened?
- > What are your working and living conditions like?
- > Where do you sleep and eat?
- > Do you have to ask permission to eat/sleep/go to the bathroom?
- > Are there locks on the doors/windows so you cannot get out?
- > Has your identification or documentation been taken from you?
